3. Acceptance

- 3.1 The Customer is taken to have exclusively accepted and is immediately bound, jointly and severally, by these terms and conditions if the Customer places an order for, or accepts, Services provided by Canberra Containers.
- 3.2 In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Contract and any other prior document or schedule that the parties have entered into, the terms of this Contract shall prevail.
- 3.3 Any amendment to the terms and conditions contained in this Contract may only be amended in writing by the consent of both parties.
- 3.4 The Customer acknowledges that the supply of Goods on credit shall not take effect until the Customer has completed a credit application with Canberra Containers and it has been approved with a credit limit established for the account.
- 3.5 In the event that the supply of Goods request exceeds the Customers credit limit and/or the account exceeds the payment terms, Canberra Containers reserves the right to refuse Delivery.
- 3.6 These terms and conditions are to be read in conjunction with Canberra Containers quotation, consignment note, agreement, airway bills, manifests, or any other forms as provided by Canberra Containers to the Customer. If there are any inconsistencies between these documents then the terms and conditions contained in this document shall prevail.
- 3.7 These terms and conditions may be meant to be read in conjunction with Canberra Containers Hire/Storage Contract or Purchase Contract, and:
- where the context so permits, the terms 'Goods' or 'Services' shall include any supply of Containers, as defined therein; and
 - if there are any inconsistencies between the two documents then the terms and conditions contained therein shall prevail.

4. Electronic Transactions Act

- 4.1 Electronic signatures shall be deemed to be accepted by either party providing that the parties have complied with Section 9 of the Electronic Transactions Act 2001 (ACT) or Electronic Transactions Act 2000 (NSW) or any other applicable provisions of that Act or any Regulations referred to in that Act.

5. Change in Control

- 5.1 The Customer must give Canberra Containers not less than fourteen (14) days prior written notice of any proposed change of ownership of the Customer and/or any other change in the Customer's details (including but not limited to, changes in the Customer's name, address, contact phone or fax number/s, change of trustees or business practice). The Customer shall be liable for any loss incurred by Canberra Containers as a result of the Customer's failure to comply with this clause.

6. Charges and Payment

- 6.1 At Canberra Containers sole discretion the Charges shall be either:
- as indicated on any invoice provided by Canberra Containers to the Customer; or
 - the Charges as at the date of Delivery of the Goods according to Canberra Containers current price list; or
 - Canberra Containers estimated Charges (subject to clause 6.2) which shall not be deemed binding upon Canberra Containers as the actual Charges can only be determined upon Delivery. Canberra Containers will use its skill and experience in estimating the Charges and undertakes to keep the Customer informed should the actual Charges look likely to exceed the original estimate. Variances in the estimated Charges of more than ten percent (10%) will be subject to the Customer's approval before proceeding with the Customer's order; or
 - Canberra Containers quoted Charges (subject to clause 6.2) which will be valid for the period stated in the quotation or otherwise for a period of thirty (30) days.
- 6.2 Canberra Containers reserves the right to change the Charges:
- if a variation to the Container which are to be supplied is requested (including, but not limited to, the quantity, specifications, Hire Period, date of Delivery, etc. or any variation as a result of non-disclosure of relevant matters by the Customer, delays caused by the Customer or any other party, prerequisite work by any third party not being completed, obscured mechanical and/or electrical faults for repair); or
 - as a result of an increase in Canberra Containers costs due to changes in statutory, government, or local body charges, taxes, levies, etc. with respect to the Container, which are outside the control of Canberra Containers (including, without limitation, increases in the cost of labour or materials, foreign exchange fluctuations, or increases in transport costs, taxes, customs duties or insurance premiums, etc.); or
 - annually for any long term hire of twelve (12) months or more, upon one (1) months' written notice to the Customer, to reflect any increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI).
- 6.3 Variations will be charged for on the basis of Canberra Containers quotation, and will be detailed in writing, and shown as variations on Canberra Containers invoice. The Customer shall be required to respond to any variation submitted by Canberra Containers within five(5) working days. Failure to do so will entitle Canberra Containers to add the cost of the variation to the Price. Payment for all variations must be made in full at the time of their completion.
- 6.4 Unless specified in writing by Canberra Containers, the Charges does not include the relocation or removal of the Container, the cost of locating (including the removal or deposit of soil), diverting or sealing of existing services, creation of temporary access roads, obtaining licences, permits or consents from the relevant local authority or other competent authority, etc.
- 6.5 Canberra Containers may charge freight by weight, measurement or value, and may at any time re-weigh, or re-value or re-measure or require the Goods to be re-weighed, or re-valued or re-measured and charge proportional additional freight accordingly.
- 6.6 At Canberra Containers sole discretion, deposit may be required.
- 6.7 Time for payment for the Services being of the essence, the Charges will be payable by the Customer on the date/s determined by Canberra Containers, which may be:
- on delivery of the Goods/Containers;
 - by way of instalments in accordance with Canberra Containers payment schedule;
 - the date specified on any invoice or other form as being the date for payment; or
 - failing any notice to the contrary, the date which is thirty (30) days following the date of any invoice given to the Customer by Canberra Containers.
- 6.8 Payment may be made by cash, electronic/on-line banking, credit card (a surcharge may apply per transaction), or by any other method as agreed to between the Customer and Canberra Containers.
- 6.9 The Customer shall not be entitled to set off against, or deduct from the Charges, any sums owed or claimed to be owed to the Customer by Canberra Containers nor to withhold payment of any invoice because part of that invoice is in dispute.
- 6.10 Unless otherwise stated the Charges does not include GST. In addition to the Charges, the Customer must pay to Canberra Containers an amount equal to any GST Canberra Containers must pay for any provision of Services by Canberra Containers under this Contract or any other agreement. The Customer must pay GST, without deduction or set off of any other amounts, at the same time and on the same basis as the Customer pays the Charges. In addition, the Customer must pay any other taxes and duties that may be applicable in addition to the Charges except where they are expressly included in the Charges.

Terms & Conditions

- 6.11 Receipt by Canberra Containers of any form of payment other than cash shall not be deemed to be payment until that form of payment has been honoured, cleared or recognised, and until then Canberra Containers rights and ownership in relation to the Container, and this Contract, shall continue.
- 6.12 The Customer expressly agrees that, if pursuant to this Agreement, there are:
- any unpaid Charges;
 - other amounts due and outstanding by the Customer;
 - any Goods (or any part of them) supplied on hire that are lost or damaged;
 - any other additional charges are due from the Customer which were not known at the time of the return of the Goods,
- 6.13 Canberra Containers is entitled to immediately charge the Customer's nominated credit card for these amounts and is irrevocably authorised to complete any documentation and take any action to recover from the credit card issuer any and all amounts which may be due by the Customer pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.
- 7. Canberra Containers not a Common Carrier
- 7.1 Canberra Containers is not a Common Carrier and will accept no liability as such. All Goods are carried or transported, and all storage and other services are performed, by Canberra Containers subject only to these terms and conditions and Canberra Containers reserves the right to refuse the carriage or transport of Goods for any person, corporation or body, and the carriage or transport of any class of Goods, at its discretion.
- 8. Customer-Packed Containers
- 8.1 If a container has not been packed by Canberra Containers it shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the Goods caused by:
- the manner in which the container has been packed; or
 - the unsuitability of the Goods for carriage or storage in containers; or
 - the unsuitability or defective condition of the container.
- 9. Nomination of Sub-Contractor
- 9.1 The Customer hereby authorises Canberra Containers, as it deems necessary, to arrange with a Sub-Contractor for the carriage of any Goods that are the subject of this contract. Any such arrangement shall be deemed to be ratified by the Customer upon delivery of the said Goods to such Sub-Contractor, who shall thereupon be entitled to the full benefit of these terms and conditions to the same extent as Canberra Containers. In so far as it may be necessary to ensure that such Sub-Contractor shall be so entitled Canberra Containers shall be deemed to enter into this Contract for its own benefit and also as agent for the Sub-Contractor.
- 10. Canberra Containers Servants or Agents
- 10.1 The Customer undertakes that no claim or allegation shall be made against any servant or agent of Canberra Containers which attempts to impose upon any of them any liability whatsoever in connection with the Goods and, if any such claim or allegation should nevertheless be made, to indemnify Canberra Containers and any such servant or agent against all consequences thereof.
- 11. Method of Transport
- 11.1 If the Customer instructs Canberra Containers to use a particular method of carriage whether by road, rail, sea or air Canberra Containers will give priority to the method designated but if that method cannot conveniently be adopted by Canberra Containers the Customer shall be deemed to authorise Canberra Containers to carry or have the Goods carried by another method or methods.
- 12. Route Deviation
- 12.1 The Customer shall be deemed to authorise any deviation from the usual route or manner of carriage of Goods that may in the absolute discretion of Canberra Containers be deemed reasonable or necessary in the circumstances.
- 13. Delivery
- 13.1 Canberra Containers is authorised to deliver the Goods at the address given to Canberra Containers by the Customer for that purpose and it is expressly agreed that Canberra Containers shall be taken to have delivered the Goods in accordance with this Contract if delivered to that address.
- 13.2 Canberra Containers may deliver the Goods by separate instalments (in accordance with the agreed delivery schedule). Each separate instalment shall be invoiced and paid for in accordance with the provisions in this Contract.
- 13.3 Delivery of the Goods to a third party nominated by the Customer is deemed to be delivery for the purposes of this agreement.
- 13.4 It is the Customer's sole responsibility to address adequately each consignment and to provide written delivery instructions to enable effective delivery. Any time specified by Canberra Containers for the delivery of Goods is an estimate only and Canberra Containers will not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the Customer as a result of delivery being late. However both parties agree that they shall make every endeavour to enable the Goods to be delivered at the time and place as was arranged between both parties. If Canberra Containers is unable to deliver the Goods as agreed solely due to any action or inaction of the Customer then Canberra Containers shall be entitled to charge the Customer any additional costs incurred by Canberra Containers as a direct consequence of any resultant delay or rescheduling of the delivery.
- 13.5 Prior to Delivery, it shall be the Customer's responsibility to:
- mark all boundaries of the nominated address, and if applicable to the Container supplied, locating all gas pipes, water pipes, sewage lines, drainage lines, telephone cabling, and other utilities that are on, near, or adjacent to the land upon which the Container is to be located; and
 - ensure the nominated address is level and Canberra Containers has clear and free access to enable them to deliver and/or remove the Container. Canberra Containers shall not be liable for any loss or damage to the address (including, without limitation, damage to pathways, driveways and concreted or paved or grassed areas) unless due to the negligence of Canberra Containers, and the Customer shall be responsible for the payment of any extra charges incurred by Canberra Containers as a result of delays or difficulties in delivering the Container (including, but not limited to, in the event the Container needs to be lifted over a fence, etc.); and
 - ensure access is suitable to accept the weight of laden trucks. The Customer agrees to indemnify Canberra Containers against all costs incurred thereby in recovering such vehicles in the event they become bogged or otherwise immovable; and
 - advise Canberra Containers of any possibility or knowledge of any subsidence, slip, erosion, flooding, or any other thing that may constitute a hazard on the nominated address where the Container is to be delivered, or on any adjacent land.
- 13.6 It shall be the responsibility of the Customer to arrange and pay for suitably licensed contractors to provide works and materials for the Container to be suitable for occupancy or habitation in accordance with all relevant laws and legal requirements of the State in which the Container will be located, and:
- the construction or alteration of footings, or a concrete slab, for the Container; or
 - connecting or installing services for use at the location address; or
 - conveying services to the Container, e.g. gas, water, electricity or telecommunication services, etc.;
- 13.7 the issuance of planning or building permits or similar authorisations (excluding the Code of Compliance for the Container itself) that are related to works required hereunder
- 14. Charges Earned
- 14.1 Canberra Containers charges shall be considered earned in the case of Goods for carriage as soon as the Goods are loaded and dispatched from the Customer's premises.
- 15. Demurrage
- 15.1 The Customer will be and shall remain responsible to Canberra Containers for all its proper charges incurred for any reason in relation to this Contract. A charge may be made by Canberra Containers in respect of any delay in excess of thirty (30) minutes in loading or unloading occurring other than from the default of Canberra Containers. Such permissible delay period shall commence upon Canberra Containers reporting for loading or unloading. Labour to load or unload the vehicle shall be the responsibility and expense of the Customer or Consignee.
- 16. Consignment Note
- 16.1 It is agreed that the person delivering any Goods to Canberra Containers for carriage or forwarding is authorised to sign the consignment note for the Customer.
- 17. Customer's Personal Liability
- 17.1 The Customer expressly warrants to Canberra Containers that the Customer is either the owner or the authorised agent of the owner of any Goods or property that is the subject matter of this Contract of cartage and/or storage and by entering into this Contract the Customer accepts these conditions of Contract for the Consignee as well as for all other persons on whose behalf the Customer is acting.
- 18. Loss or Damage
- 18.1 Subject to any statutory provisions imposing liability in respect of the loss of or damage to the Goods (including but not limited to chilled, frozen, refrigerated or perishable Goods):
- Canberra Containers shall not be under any liability for any damage to, loss, deterioration, mis-delivery, delay in delivery or non-delivery of the Goods (whether the Goods are or have been in the possession of Canberra containers or not) nor for any instructions, advice, information or service given or provided to any person, whether in respect of the goods or any other thing or matter, nor for any consequential or indirect loss, loss of market or consequences of delay; and
 - the customer will indemnify Canberra containers against all claims of any kind whatsoever, howsoever caused or arising, brought by any person in connection with any matter or thing done, said or omitted by Canberra Containers in connection with the Goods.

Terms & Conditions

19. Insurance

- 19.1 The Customer acknowledges that:
- (a) the Goods are carried and stored at the Customer's sole risk and not at the risk of Canberra Containers; and
 - (b) Canberra Containers is under no obligation to arrange insurance of the Goods and it remains the Customer's responsibility to ensure that the Goods and the customer's own equipment are insured adequately
- 19.2 The Customer shall maintain a public liability insurance policy for a minimum of ten million dollars ($10m) in respect of the location site of where Canberra Containers Equipment of the Customer's property is located.

20. Indemnity

- 20.1 The Customer shall be liable for and must indemnify Canberra Containers in respect of any claim made against Canberra Containers and all damages, costs, and expenses suffered or incurred by Canberra Containers on a full indemnity basis in the respect of:
- (a) personal injury;
 - (b) damage to property;
 - (c) a claim by a third party arising from the state, condition or use of the Equipment in any way whatsoever from the hire or store of the Equipment under Canberra Containers Hire/Storage Contract. The Customer's liability under this indemnity is diminished to the extent that Canberra Containers breach of the Hire/Storage Contract or Canberra Containers negligence caused the liability claims, damage, loss, costs or expenses.

21. Claims

- 21.1 Canberra Containers are not liable for any consequential loss (including loss or profit and/or Contract) or damage to the stored property or the client's own equipment or otherwise arising from any failure in the Equipment or non-arrival or late delivery of the Equipment or any breach of the Hire/Storage Contract whatever by Canberra Containers or the Customer for any cause whatsoever, including negligence on Canberra Containers part of that of Canberra Containers employees, servants, agents and/or contractors.
- 21.2 Notwithstanding clauses 18 and 19 in the event that the Customer believes that they have any claim against Canberra Containers then they must lodge any notice of claim for consideration and determination by Canberra Containers within seven (7) days of the date of delivery, or for non-delivery within seven (7) days of the anticipated date of delivery or the removal or destruction of the Goods.
- 21.3 The failure to notify a claim within the time limits under clause 21.2 is evidence of satisfactory performance by Canberra Containers of its obligations.

22. Default and Consequences of Default

- 22.1 Interest on overdue invoices shall accrue daily from the date when payment becomes due, until the date of payment, at a rate of ten percent (10%) per calendar month (and at Canberra Containers sole discretion such interest shall compound monthly at such a rate) after as well as before any judgment.
- 22.2 If the Customer owes Canberra Containers any money the Customer shall indemnify Canberra Containers from and against all costs and disbursements incurred by Canberra Containers in recovering the debt (including but not limited to internal administration fees, legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis, Canberra Containers Contract default fees, and bank dishonour fees).
- 22.3 Further to any other rights or remedies Canberra Containers may have under this Contract, if the Customer has made payment to Canberra Containers by credit card, and the transaction is subsequently reversed, the Customer shall be liable for the amount of the reversed transaction, in addition to any further costs incurred by Canberra Containers under this clause 22 where it can be proven that such reversal is found to be illegal, fraudulent or in contravention to the Customer's obligations under this Contract.
- 22.4 Without prejudice to Canberra Containers other remedies at law Canberra Containers shall be entitled to cancel all or any part of any order of the Customer which remains unperformed in addition to and without prejudice to any other remedies and all amounts owing to Canberra Containers shall, whether or not due for payment, become immediately payable in the event that:
- (a) any money payable to Canberra Containers becomes overdue, or in Canberra Containers opinion the Customer will be unable to meet its payments as they fall due; or
 - (b) the Customer has exceeded any applicable credit limit provided by Canberra Containers;
 - (c) the Customer becomes insolvent, convenes a meeting with its creditors or proposes or enters into an arrangement with creditors, or makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or
 - (d) a receiver, manager, liquidator (provisional or otherwise) or similar person is appointed in respect of the Customer or any asset of the Customer.

23. Lien and disposal of property

- 23.1 Canberra Containers shall have a particular and general lien on any Goods the property of the Customer or a third party owner which are in the possession or control of Canberra Containers (and any documents relating to those Goods) for all sums owed at any time by the Customer or a third party owner to Canberra Containers (whether those sums are due from the Customer on those Goods or documents, or on any other Goods or documents), and Canberra Containers shall have the right to sell such Goods or cargo by public auction or private treaty after giving reasonable notice to the Customer. Canberra Containers shall be entitled to retain the sums due to it, in addition to the charges incurred in detention and sale of such Goods or cargo, from the proceeds of sale and shall render any surplus to the entitled person.
- 23.2 Notwithstanding clause 23.1 nothing shall prejudice Canberra Containers rights to use any of Canberra Containers other rights and remedies contained in this agreement to recover any outstanding charges or fees payable in respect of the Goods that were not recovered out the sale of the Goods in accordance with clause 23.1 and no exception shall be taken upon the grounds that the Charges realised is less than the full market value of the Goods.

24. Personal Property Securities Act 2009 ("PPSA")

- 24.1 The terms "Collateral", "Debtor", "Financing Statement", "Financing Charge Statement", "Grantor", "Proceeds", "Security Party", "Security Agreement" and "Security Interest" have the meanings given in the PPSA.
- 24.2 Upon assenting to these terms and conditions in writing the Customer acknowledges and agrees that these terms and conditions constitute a security agreement for the purposes of the PPSA, and creates a security interest in:
- (a) all Goods being transported, carried or handled by Canberra Containers, over which Canberra Containers invokes a lien; and
 - (b) any purchase by the Customer on credit terms from Canberra Containers will constitute a purchase money security interest as defined under section 14 of the PPSA (PMSI); and
 - (c) the PMSI granted herein will continue to apply to any Goods coming into existence or proceeds of sale of Goods coming into existence; and
 - (d) all the Customer's present and after acquired property being a charge, including anything in respect of which the Customer has at any time a sufficient right, interest or power to grant a security interest in for the purposes of securing repayment of all monetary obligations of the Customer to Canberra Containers for Services – that have previously been provided and that will be provided in the future by Canberra Containers to the Customer.
 - (e) The Customer undertakes to:
 - (f) promptly sign any further documents and/or provide any further information (such information to be complete, accurate and up to date in all respects) which Canberra Containers may reasonably require to:
 - (i) register a financing statement or financing change statement in relation to a security interest on the Personal Property Securities Register;
 - (ii) register any other document required to be registered by the PPSA; or
 - (iii) correct a defect in a statement referred to in subclauses (e)(f)(i) or (e)(f)(ii);
 - (g) indemnify, and upon demand reimburse, Canberra Containers for all expenses incurred in registering a financing statement or financing change statement on the Personal Property Securities Register established by the PPSA or releasing any registration made thereby;
 - (h) not register a financing change statement in respect of a security interest without the prior written consent of Canberra Containers;
 - (i) not register, or permit to be registered, a financing statement or a financing change statement in relation to the Goods in favour of a third party without the prior written consent of Canberra Containers.
- 24.3 Canberra Containers and the Customer agree that sections 96, 115 and 125 of the PPSA do not apply to the security agreement created by these terms and conditions.
- 24.4 The Customer hereby waives its rights to receive notices under sections 95, 118, 121(4), 130, 132(3)(d) and 132(4) of the PPSA.
- 24.5 The Customer waives its rights as a grantor and/or a debtor under sections 142 and 143 of the PPSA.
- 24.6 Unless otherwise agreed to in writing by Canberra Containers, the Customer waives its right to receive a verification statement in accordance with section 157 of the PPSA.
- 24.7 The Customer shall unconditionally ratify any actions taken by Canberra Containers under clauses 24.2(e) to 24.4.
- 24.8 Only to the extent that the hire of the Equipment exceeds a two (2) year hire period with the right of renewal shall clause 24 apply as a security agreement in the form of a PPS Lease in respect of Section 20 of the PPSA, in all other matters this clause 24 will apply generally for the purposes of the PPSA.

25. Security and Charge

- 25.1 In consideration of Canberra Containers agreeing to supply Services, the Customer charges all of its rights, title and interest (whether joint or several) in any land, realty or other assets capable of being charged, owned by the Customer either now or in the future, to secure the performance by the Customer of its obligations under these terms and conditions (including, but not limited to, the payment of any money).
- 25.2 The Customer indemnifies Canberra Containers from and against all Canberra Containers costs and disbursements including legal costs on a solicitor and own client basis incurred in exercising Canberra Containers rights under this clause.
- 25.3 The Customer irrevocably appoints Canberra Containers and each director of Canberra Containers as the Customer's true and lawful attorney/s to perform all necessary acts to give effect to the provisions of this clause 25 including, but not limited to, signing any document on the Customer's behalf.

Canberra Containers will not be liable to the Customer for any loss or damage the Customer suffers because Canberra Containers has exercised its rights under this clause.
- 27.2 Canberra Containers may cancel any Contract to which these terms and conditions apply or cancel delivery of Goods at any time before the Goods are delivered, by giving written notice to the Customer. On giving such notice the Customer must repay to the Customer any sums paid in respect of the Charges. Canberra Containers shall not be liable for any loss or damage whatever arising from such cancellation.
- 27.3 If the Customer cancels the delivery of Goods, or the provision of any Services, then the Customer shall be liable for any loss incurred by Canberra Containers (including, but not limited to, any loss of profits) up to the time of cancellation, or as a direct result of the cancellation.
- 27.4 Cancellation of orders for Goods made to the Customer's specifications, or for non-stocklist items, will definitely not be accepted once production has commenced, or an order has been placed.
- 28. Service of Notices
- 28.1 Any written notice given under this Contract shall be deemed to have been given and received:
- (a) by handing the notice to the other party, in person;
 - (b) by leaving it at the address of the other party as stated in this Contract;
 - (c) by sending it by registered post to the address of the other party as stated in this Contract;
 - (d) if sent by email to the other party's last known email address.
- 28.2 Any notice that is posted shall be deemed to have been served, unless the contrary is shown, at the time when by the ordinary course of post, the notice would have been delivered.
- 29. Right to enter and repossess
- 29.1 the Customer irrevocably authorises Canberra Containers (or their agent) the right to (as the invitee of the Customer) enter upon and into land and premises owned occupied or used by the Customer, or any premises where the Container is situated and take possession thereof, without being responsible for any damage thereby caused; and
- 29.2 Canberra Containers may recover possession of any Container in transit, whether or not Delivery has occurred; and
- 29.3 the Customer must not charge or grant an encumbrance over the Container nor grant nor otherwise give away any interest in the Container while it remains the property of Canberra Containers
- 30. Other Applicable Legislation
- 30.1 At Canberra Containers sole discretion, if there are any disputes or claims for unpaid Containers and/or Services then the provisions of the Building and Construction Industry (Security of Payment) Act 2009 (Australian Capital Territory) and the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payments Act 1999 (New South Wales) and may apply.
- 30.2 Nothing in this agreement is intended to have the effect of contracting out of any applicable provisions of the any of the Acts listed in clause 30.1 (each as applicable), except to the extent permitted by the Act where applicable.
- 31. General
- 31.1 Any dispute or difference arising as to the interpretation of these terms and conditions or as to any matter arising hereunder, shall be submitted to, and settled by, arbitration in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Act 2017 (ACT) or Commercial Arbitration Act 2010 (NSW) or its replacement(s).
- 31.2 The failure by either party to enforce any provision of these terms and conditions shall not be treated as a waiver of that provision, nor shall it affect that party's right to subsequently enforce that provision. If any provision of these terms and conditions shall be invalid, void, illegal or unenforceable the validity, existence, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall not be affected, prejudiced or impaired.
- 31.3 These terms and conditions and any Contract to which they apply shall be governed by the laws of either Australian Capital Territory or New South Wales in which state the Goods and/or Services were provided by Canberra Containers to the Customer however, in the event of a dispute that deems necessary for the matter to be referred to a Magistrates or higher Court then jurisdiction of the Australian Capital Territory Courts will apply in which Canberra Containers has its principal place of business.
- 31.4 Nothing in this agreement is intended to have the effect of contracting out of any applicable provisions of the Fair Trading Acts in each of the States and Territories of Australia (including any substitute to those Acts or re-enactment thereof), except to the extent permitted by those Acts where applicable.
- 31.5 Subject to clause 31.4, Canberra Containers shall be under no liability whatsoever to the Customer for any indirect and/or consequential loss and/or expense (including loss of profit) suffered by the Customer arising out of a breach by Canberra Containers of these terms and conditions (alternatively Canberra Containers liability shall be limited to damages which under no circumstances shall exceed the Charges).
- 31.6 Neither party to this Contract may assign this Contract, any payment or any other right, benefit or interest under this Contract without the written consent of the other party (which shall not be unreasonably withheld). Canberra Containers may elect to subcontract out any part of the Services but shall not be relieved from any liability or obligation under this Contract by so doing. Furthermore, the Customer agrees and understands that they have no authority to give any instruction to any of Canberra Containers sub-contractors without the authority of Canberra Containers.

Terms & Conditions

- 31.7 The Customer agrees that Canberra Containers may amend their terms and conditions for subsequent future contracts with the Customer by disclosing such to the Customer in writing. These changes shall be deemed to take effect from the date on which the Customer accepts such changes, or otherwise at such time as the Customer makes a further request for Canberra Containers to provide Goods or services to the Customer.
- 31.8 Canberra Containers shall be liable for any default due to any act of God, war, terrorism, strike, lock-out, industrial action, fire, flood, storm, pandemic or other event beyond the reasonable control of either party.
- 31.9 Both parties warrant that they have the power to enter into this Contract and have obtained all necessary authorisations to allow them to do so, they are not insolvent and that this Contract creates binding and valid legal obligations on them.

PART II: HIRE & STORAGE SERVICES

32. Hire / Storage Terms and Conditions

- 32.1 "Minimum Hire / Storage Period" means the least amount of time that the Container may be hired by the Customer, as described in this Hire Contract.
- 32.2 This Contract is for the purpose of hire and/or storage and does not create any lease or tenancy subject to any state residential tenancies act or property law act.
- 32.3 Charges shall commence from the time the Container departs from Canberra Containers premises and will continue until the return of the Container thereto, and/or until the expiry of any applicable Minimum Hire Period, whichever last occurs.
- 32.4 No allowance whatsoever can be made for time during which the Container is not in use for any reason unless Canberra Containers confirms special prior arrangements in writing. In the event of any malfunction of, or fault in, the Container, provided the Customer notifies Canberra Containers immediately, Charges will not be payable during the time the Container is not operational, unless the condition is due to negligence or misuse on the part of or attributable to the Customer.
- 32.5 If the Customer wishes to terminate this Contract:
- (a) it must provide Canberra Containers fourteen (14) days' notice in writing. The notice period begins from the date of receipt of the notice by Canberra Containers; and/or
 - (b) before the expiry of the Minimum Hire Period, the Customer must pay to Canberra Containers the remainder of the Charges which would otherwise have been payable to Canberra Containers for the duration of the Minimum Hire Period.
- 32.6 The Container is, and will at all times remain, the absolute property of Canberra Containers, however the Customer accepts full responsibility for:
- (a) the safekeeping of the Container, and indemnifies Canberra Containers for all loss, theft, or damage to the Container, howsoever caused, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, whether or not such loss, theft, or damage is attributable to any negligence, failure, or omission of the Customer (including, but not limited to, misuse, abuse or overloading, mysterious disappearance, wrongful conversion, breach of this Contract, violation of any laws, normal servicing, location, use, loading, unloading or transportation on or over water, wharves, bridges or vessels or any kind, exposure to any corrosive substances (including caustic, cyanide, acids, salt water, etc.), theft where not reasonably locked and secured, transportation (except where transported by Canberra Containers); and
 - (b) shall keep Canberra Containers indemnified against all liability in respect of all actions, proceedings, claims, damages, costs and expenses in respect of any injury to persons, damage to property, or otherwise arising out of the use of the Container during the hire of the Container and whether or not arising from any negligence, failure or omission of the Customer or any other persons.
- 32.7 The Customer will insure Canberra Containers' interest in the Container against physical loss or damage including, but not limited to, the perils of accident, fire, theft, burglary, storm, collision, and all other usual risks and will effect adequate Public Liability Insurance ($20m) covering any loss, damage or injury to property arising out of the Container, including to note the interest of Canberra Containers and its financier on any insurance policy. Furthermore, the Customer will not use the Container, nor permit it to be used, in such a manner as would permit an insurer to decline any claim.
- 32.8 The Customer is not authorised to pledge Canberra Containers' credit for repairs to the Container, or to create a lien over the Container in respect of any repairs.
- 32.9 The Customer must:
- (a) inspect the Container on Delivery, to satisfy itself as to the condition, specifications, quality and fitness of the Container for its intended purpose; and
 - (b) ensure that the Container is used:
 - (i) only for its intended purpose, and not for any illegal purpose, or any use which would cause damage thereto, or store any illegal, prohibited, or unprotected corrosive/explosive substances or bulk commodities in, on, the Container which may corrode, oxidise, explode, dent, puncture, contaminate, stain or damage the interior or exterior of the Container; and
 - (ii) maintained, moved and/or stored safely, strictly in accordance with the law (including all work health and safety (WHS) laws) and in accordance with the instructions and recommendations of the manufacturer of the Container, or in accordance with any specific instructions of Canberra Containers.
 - (c) ensure that:
 - (i) there is no smoking, open flames or use of drugs in the Container; and
 - (ii) no holes, hooks, screws or tape is put on the walls, roof or floor of the Container without the express permission of Canberra Containers; and
 - (iii) their belongings placed inside the Container are adequately insured; and
 - (d) not carry out repairs, maintenance, adjustments, or disassemble, alter (including making any structural alterations) make any additions to the Container, remove any signage, or in any other manner interfere with the Container, without the prior written consent of Canberra Containers; and
 - (e) at their own expense, keep and maintain the Container in proper working order and good and substantial repair; and
 - (f) notify Canberra Containers immediately by telephone and email:
 - (i) of the full circumstances of any defect, malfunction or accident (including any accident resulting in the injury to persons or damage to the Container or property). The Customer is not absolved from the requirements to safeguard the Container by giving such notification, and must cease use of the Container if such use would in any way aggravate the defect or otherwise prejudicially affect the Container; and
 - (ii) in the event the Customer wishes to relocate the Container. If Canberra Containers consents to such, the relocation of the Container must be on the terms and conditions specified in that consent; and
 - (g) not permit the Container, or any part thereof, to be used by any other party for any other purpose, without the express written approval of Canberra Containers; and
 - (h) not exceed the recommended or legal load and capacity limits of the Container; and
 - (i) keep the Container in their own possession and control, and must not sell, transfer, create a security interest in, sign or sub-lease the Container, or assign the benefit of this Contract, nor shall the Customer under any circumstances, mortgage, pledge or otherwise deal with the Container, or be entitled to lien over the Container; and
 - (j) not fix the Container in such a manner as to make it legally a fixture forming part of any freehold; and
 - (k) not move the Container from the nominated site without the express written approval of Canberra Containers, and advise Canberra Containers of the location of the Container, on request thereby; and
 - (l) on expiration or termination of this Contract, have the Container ready for collection within forty-eight (48) hours (complete with all parts, components and accessories), clean and in good, serviceable condition as delivered, fair wear and tear accepted. If the Customer fails to adhere to this sub-clause Canberra Containers shall be entitled to charge the Customer additionally until such time as the Container is ready for collection and/or retake possession of the Container, including any personal property of the Customer stored therein (and in this instance clauses 18 and 23 shall apply to such personal property); and
 - (m) grant Canberra Containers (or Canberra Containers agent) the right to (as an invitee of the Customer) enter upon and into the nominated site or any other land and premises owned, occupied or used by the Customer, or any premises where the Container is situated:
 - (i) at all reasonable times to view the state thereof, provided Canberra Containers gives the Customer notice of at least twenty four (24) hours of its intention to do so; or
 - (ii) to take possession thereof, without being responsible for any damage thereby caused, on the expiration or termination of this Contract.
- 32.10 Immediately on request by Canberra Containers, the Customer will pay:
- (a) Canberra Containers' then current list price of any Container, accessories, parts or components (including keys and locks) that are, for whatever reason, lost, destroyed, written off or not returned to Canberra Containers; and
 - (b) all costs incurred in cleaning the Container (including, where applicable, cost of removal of contents); and
 - (c) the cost of repairing any damage to the Container caused by:
 - (i) the ordinary use of the Container up to an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the new list price of the Container; or
 - (ii) wilful or negligent actions of the Customer, or any agent or employee of the Customer; or
 - (iii) vandalism, or (in Canberra Containers reasonable opinion) in any way whatsoever other than by the ordinary use of the Container by the Customer.
 - (d) the cost of fuels, consumables and/or components (light bulbs, batteries, etc.) provided by Canberra Containers, and used by the Customer; and
 - (e) any costs incurred by Canberra Containers in repossessing the Container; and
 - (f) any lost revenue which Canberra Containers would otherwise be entitled to under this, or any other, contract for the sale or hire of the Container; and
 - (g) any insurance excess payable in relation to a claim made by either the Customer or Canberra Containers in relation to any damage caused by, or to, the Container whilst the same is hired by the Customer, irrespective of whether charged by the Customer's insurers or Canberra Containers; and
 - (h) any costs and/or expenses incurred by Canberra Containers in making good any injury caused to any land or to the property of any third party by the Delivery or repossession of the Container.
- 32.11 In the event of premature termination of this Contract (either by notification, or breach, by the Customer), the Customer shall be responsible for the immediate payment of the following sums:
- (a) all Charges due and payable up to the date of termination; and
 - (b) all other sums owing by the Customer under this Contract as a result of their breach of this Contract and its termination; and
 - (c) liquidated damages for the loss of bargain; and
 - (d) all payments made, or due and payable, to Canberra Containers shall be deemed as part of the Charges.
- 32.12 Upon expiry of the hire of the Container, provided the Customer has made full payment of all monies payable and fulfilled their obligations under this Contract, the Customer may enter into a separate purchase contract to acquire ownership of the Container by payment to Canberra Containers of the specified amount.
- 32.13 All Goods that are to be stored under this Contract shall be tallied into and out of storage and if the Customer (or the Customer's representative) is not present at the time of receipt or delivery of those Goods, then Canberra Containers tally shall be accepted as final.

Terms & Conditions

- 32.14 The Customer acknowledges and agrees that (unless specifically advised to Canberra Containers) the quality, quantity and condition of the contents of any packages tendered for storage are generally unknown to Canberra Containers.
- 32.15 The Customer must ensure that all Goods (and/or containers in which the Goods are packaged) tendered for storage must be clearly, distinctively, and indelibly branded.
- 32.16 The Customer must immediately notify Canberra Containers of any change of the ownership of any Goods which are stored on the Customer's behalf under this agreement.
- 32.17 Canberra Containers reserves the right at any time to require the removal of any Goods held in storage on the Customer's behalf by giving not less than one weeks' notice to the Customer that they wish them to do so.
- 32.18 The Customer must on request by Canberra Containers provide samples of the signature(s) of any person(s) entitled to uplift the Goods from storage.
- 32.19 The Customer agrees to give Canberra Containers at least seven (7) days of their intent to remove the Goods from storage. In the event the Customer fails to give such notice then Canberra Containers may at its sole discretion agree to facilitate the immediate removal of the Goods but shall be entitled to charge the Customer an additional fee for so doing.
- 32.20 An inward receipt in relation to Goods stored by Canberra Containers shall not constitute a document of title to those Goods, or be negotiable, nor shall any right of the Customer storing the Goods be assignable.
- 32.21 Canberra Containers shall store the Goods in bulk or in assorted lots at the convenience of Canberra Containers unless the Customer furnishes Canberra Containers, prior to, or at the time of the receipt of the Goods, a manifest showing marks, brands or sizes to be kept and accounted for separately and the class of storage desired in which case the Customer shall be liable for all additional costs incurred by Canberra Containers in facilitating the particular method of storage chosen.
- 32.22 The Customer shall be liable to Canberra Containers on demand and at any rate before removal of the Goods from storage, for all charges or fees in connection handling, loading or unloading, palletising, re-palletising, re-packing and/or delivery of the Goods, as the case may require, which charges and fees shall be in accordance with Canberra Containers standard Price list, as amended from time to time, and in addition to any storage fee.

PART III: PURCHASES

- 33. Defective Container/s
- 33.1 The Customer must inspect the Container on Delivery and must within 48 hours after delivery (time being of the essence) notify Canberra Containers of any alleged defect, shortage in quantity, damage or failure to comply with the description or Canberra Containers quotation. The Customer shall afford Canberra Containers an opportunity to inspect the Container within a reasonable time following such notification if the Customer believes the Container is defective in any way. If the Customer shall fail to comply with these provisions the Container shall be presumed to be free from any defect or damage. For any defective Container, which Canberra Containers has agreed in writing that the Customer is entitled to reject, Canberra Containers liability for any defect or damage to the Container is:
- (a) limited to the value of any express warranty provided to the Customer to Canberra Containers (at Canberra Containers sole discretion); or
 - (b) limited to any warranty to which Canberra Containers is entitled, if Canberra Containers did not manufacture the Container; or
 - (c) otherwise negated absolutely.
- 33.2 Canberra Containers warrants that if any defect in the workmanship of Canberra Containers becomes apparent and is reported thereto within twelve (12) months of Delivery, then Canberra Containers will either (at its sole discretion) repair or replace the container if it accepts the claim. However, in respect of all claims, Canberra Containers shall not be liable to compensate the Customer for any delay in either replacing or remedying the workmanship, or in properly assessing the Customer's claim.
- 33.3 The Container will not be accepted for return other than in accordance with 33.1 above.
- 33.4 Notwithstanding clause 33.1, Canberra Containers shall not be liable for any defect or damage which may be caused or partly caused by or arise as a result of:
- (a) the Customer failing to properly maintain, install or store the Container; or
 - (b) the Customer using the Container for any purpose other than that for which it was designed; or
 - (c) the Customer continuing the use of the Container after any defect became apparent, or should have become apparent to a reasonably prudent operator or user; or
 - (d) the Customer failing to follow any instructions or guidelines provided by Canberra Containers; or
 - (e) fair wear and tear, any accident, or act of God.
- 33.5 In the case of second-hand Goods, the Customer acknowledges that it has had full opportunity to inspect the second hand Goods prior to Delivery and accepts them with all faults and that to the extent permitted by law, no warranty is given by Canberra Containers as to the quality or suitability for any purpose and any implied warranty, statutory or otherwise, is expressly excluded. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that Canberra Containers has agreed to provide the Customer with the second-hand Goods and calculated the Charges of the second hand Goods in reliance of this clause 33.5.
- 33.6 Canberra Containers may in its absolute discretion accept non-defective Goods for return in which case Canberra Containers may require the Customer to pay handling fees of up to fifteen percent (15%) of the value of the returned Goods plus any freight costs.
- 33.7 If any Container is damaged or destroyed following Delivery, but prior to ownership passing to the Customer, Canberra Containers is entitled to receive all insurance proceeds payable for the Container. The production of these terms and conditions by Canberra Containers is sufficient evidence of Canberra Containers' rights to receive the insurance proceeds without the need for any person dealing with Canberra Containers to make further enquiries.
- 34. Intellectual Property
- 34.1 Where Canberra Containers has designed, drawn or developed Containers for the Customer, then the copyright in any designs and drawings and documents shall remain the property of Canberra Containers. Under no circumstances may such designs, drawings and documents be used without the express written approval of Canberra Containers.
- 34.2 The Customer warrants that all designs, specifications or instructions given to Canberra Containers will not cause Canberra Containers to infringe any patent, registered design or trademark in the execution of the Customer's order and the Customer agrees to indemnify Canberra Containers against any action taken by a third party against Canberra Containers in respect of any such infringement.
- 34.3 The Customer agrees that Canberra Containers may (at no cost) use for the purposes of marketing or entry into any competition, any documents, designs, drawings or Containers which Canberra Containers has created for the Customer.
- 35. Title
- 35.1 Canberra Containers and the Customer agree that ownership of the Container shall not pass until:
- (a) the Customer has paid Canberra Containers all amounts owing to Canberra Containers; and
 - (b) the Customer has met all of its other obligations to Canberra Containers under this Contract.
- 35.2 It is further agreed that, until ownership of the Container passes to the Customer in accordance with sub-clause 35.1:
- (a) the Customer is only a bailee of the Container and must return the Container to Canberra Containers on request; and
 - (b) the Customer holds the benefit of the Customer's insurance of the Container on trust for Canberra Containers and must pay to Canberra Containers the proceeds of any insurance in the event of the Container being lost, damaged or destroyed; and
 - (c) the Customer must not sell, dispose, or otherwise part with possession of the Container other than in the ordinary course of business and for market value. If the Customer sells, disposes or parts with possession of the Container then the Customer must hold the proceeds of any such act on trust for Canberra Containers and must pay or deliver the proceeds to Canberra Containers on demand; and
 - (d) the Customer should not convert or process the Container or intermix it with other goods but if the Customer does so then the Customer holds the resulting product on trust for the benefit of Canberra Containers and must sell, dispose of or return the resulting product to Canberra Containers as it so directs; and
 - (e) Canberra Containers may commence proceedings to recover the Charges, notwithstanding that ownership of the Container has not passed to the Customer.
